Curlew Lake State Park – Wellhead Renovation

This project consisted of improvements to the domestic water pumping system and an irrigation line extension, including selective demolition, removal, and installation of submersible pump, control valves, water and irrigation lines, and other miscellaneous items.

Need: Purpose of this project was to move the park wellhead away from the sewage lines to conform with current Department of Health regulations.

Fund Source: State Building and Construction Account

Parks Project Team: Parks Development Service Center - Eastern Region

Cost: State and County Permitting Costs $7,475 State and County Required Design Costs $9,982

State Public Works Construction Costs $119,062
Parks Administration Costs $2,541

Total Project Cost to State Parks $139,060

Completion Date: September 26, 2006

Before construction

After construction

