

Ocean City State Park is a year-round, 170-acre camping park, featuring ocean beach, dunes and dense thickets of shore pine. Popular activities include bird watching, beachcombing, seasonal shellfishing, surfing, horseback riding, fishing, kite flying and winter-storm watching. Interpretive signs situated throughout the park and the seasonal Ocean Shores Interpretive Center at the south end of the city offer visitors the opportunity to learn more about the marine environment, flora and fauna that make this beach park unique.
