Respondents	If yes, please describe the experience.
1	Camping, pleasant experience
2	Firepits & water activities
3	Deception Pass someplace I can enjoy just by parking at the beach.
4	Cape disappointment sp is great and it has many accessible features. I like the discovery Trail, barons ADA trail, the forts from the Civil War that can be visited. The lighthouse also.
5	I love all the natural areas near Lake Vancouver and the Columbia River.
6	Fishing at Battle Ground lake from the ADA dock
7	We enjoy cape disappointment every year, but dread using the bathroom at the end of the trip.
8	I enjoyed the small outdoor talks with birds, moth's, etc.
9	We've enjoyed walking trails at Bridal Trails State Park
10	geiser
11	access to water and paved trail
12	The Goldendale Observatory is my favorite. It's a great experience every time.
13	Camp Hosting
14	Twin Harbors
15	camping and nature presentations
16	enjoy camping multiple locations
17	Westport beaches
18	Trailer camping in many of your parks that do have handicapped facilities.
19	fishing
20	Riverside State Park
21	Long Beach has free beach rentals for beach wheelchairs but they are very hard for elderly to push. Thankfully our grandson was there.
22	Keep disappointment. Looks like it took a good hammering in the King tides. It was a very good experience to be there during the storm and I think you did a good job of trying to keep people safe.
23	Enjoyed the views, historical markers and location signs. The trails are great
24	Wenatchee Confluence, Maryhill and Grayland
25	All of the trails and beach access.
26	I live in Olympia and frequent the many state parks within a 50 mile radius
27	Marine science center at Fort Worden
28	Cama Beach night beach walk
29	Lime Kiln State Park is breadth takingly beautiful! I appreciated the views while also learning a lot.
30	Our parks are all particularly beautiful.

Respondents	If yes, please describe the experience.
31	Campground was in a beautiful location and clean. Easy access to beach from parking.
32	Trailer camping at Bayview and Fort Casey State Parks
33	St. Edwards Park
34	Camping
35	Went to Ocean Shores
36	nothing of note that I recall, but it's been a very long time
37	Westport has a great park with a mile long accessible path!
38	Being able to walk the clean paths and trails
39	Camping
40	We love Dosewallips. The layout is very conducive to chatting with neighbors.
41	Walking on the shoreline at Dosewallips.
42	My visits have been on hiking trails
43	snow quamie falls
44	The accessible park at Lake Sammamish, Seward Park, Golden Garden
45	Ike Kinswa State park. But many sites are not easily accessible to water. The camping spots "on" the water should be cleared a bit so people with varying degrees of mobility issues can enjoy getting their feet wet.
46	Camping
47	Access to trails, beaches
48	boat cruises at CDA, ID wish WA had some.
49	Dash point is very nice
50	We like to visit the parks and enjoy the nature
51	manicured and paved trails

60	All of them
61	We love WA State Parks
62	Belfair State Park, I love the cabins and RV sites available to those with disabilities.
63	Pacific Beach is my favorite. Because of my disability, I am unable to walk the beach. Camping right on the beach is a luxury and a dream for me.
64	Camping
65	Camping at Cape D.

Respondents	If yes, please describe the experience.
66	Mt St Helens visitors center. Also Beautiful boardwalk access around nearby lakes specially designed for those with wheelchairs. Love that area!
67	Lake Easton SP - enjoy full hookups
68	Curllew Lake State Park has a (1) camping spot designated for handicapped. It's a very nice spot located centrally in the park, however it has a downside: It's a back-in spot which can be troublesome to get into, and it's not very deep meaning that if one has a larger unit (25 ft or longer) it may stick out into the traffic lane. It would be much more convenient if it were located closer to services (restrooms, fishing dock, etc.) and if it was a pull-through site.
69	Ft. Flagler, Ft. Worden, Ft. Casey, Pacific Beach and Grayland State Parks
70	Belfair , Fort Worden
71	Belair state park cook out.
72	We visit and camp year round in WA. state parks and have always enjoyed them.
73	Just pleasant well kept surroundings

136	Fishing and boating
137	Wenatchee state park is my favorite park to camp because of the many choices to hike fish and swim.
138	Lot's of amenities and plenty of hookups.
139	Clam digging walking through the park on and off the trails.
140	Ranger talks at Penrose
141	Camping
142	we went to a park in Chelan called 5 mile park and they did a star looking abd satellite watching class it was cool
143	Easy beach access and evening programs
144	Fishing, views
145	Campgrounds
146	Several campsites could walk wo trip hazards and fires that higher
147	Any and all children programs.
148	Fort Worden handycap number 5 RV slot is perfect for me because the table and fire pit is in front of my RV.
149	Camping at Ft. Flagler
150	Pacific Beach campground
151	Sun Lakes is a very nice park with many activities we enjoy.
152	So far all thai i have been to was good I camped at 10 differnt places last year
153	Nice flat sites
154	Ocean City State Park
155	deception pass state park. beautiful ocean views.
156	Cape D, great atmosphere and facility
157	Both. Hiking the trails and fishing from my kayak and also onsite being able to use the restroom facilities including a hot shower.

167	The marine research facility at Fort Warden State Park is great. Able to touch some marine life. Learned a lot from a volunteer there.
168	Ranger programs
169	We really liked how Ike Kinswa felt secluded and tucked-away even though campsites were about average distance apart compared to other parks.
170	Maryhill observatory
171	Group camp site Penrose point
172	Fort Flagler-excellent historical talks and walks. Same with Fort Worden.
173	Nature talks at state parks, walking trails, reading trail markers, renting paddle boards
174	Grayland State Park
175	Not really. One disable campsite, maybe in a campground.
176	camping
177	camping - we have a toy hauler with access for the drop down on the right side - we need access to get him down off the ramp and be able to maneuver him away from trailer. some state parks have logs or rocks strategically placed that interfere with the side door. Even accessible sites sometimes don't accomodate
178	The RV Parks have a variety of things to do
179	Paved walking trails
180	camping
181	Parts of the Palouse to Cascades State Park are gorgeous.
182	Fort Flagler.....ADA space available when park is full.
183	Cape Disappointment state park ( most of it)
184	Ranger talks
185	Lewis & Clark Interpretive Center
186	Ft. Worden SP / Ft. Flagler SP
187	Dosewallips, Camano Island
188	Lake Sylvia walking trails

253	Gray land and Fort Flagler.
254	It was a great experience
255	love the staff thet hlp alot
256	Enjoy Grayland Beach the most
257	Fort Flagler State park. My son who is in a power wheelchair can do a four mile loop. up the main park road and down the wide hard path along the coastal side. However, it would be great if it was paved especially to get out at the end, by the rv spots on the water. Nolte state park also has a nice hard packed trail around. One steep part may be too much for those in manual wheelchairs. Lincoln rock state park is very nice also, and has accesible to beach sort of. It could be extended a little more but much better than most.
258	parks close to offroad paved bike trails
259	Fort Flagler SP
260	Bike Riding, wildlife viewing and much more

270	Pearrygin
271	Bowl and Pitcher and Flagler
272	Rasar State Park. Ranger was extremely helpful in 2003.
273	I think the state parks are all good some of the parking are a little small and tight together
274	Hell's Gate
275	Dosewallaps park
276	It is what you make it out to be.
277	lots of camping and hiking near water
278	Millersylvania SP has it all. Great care is taken of the park by volunteers and employees. Several micro environments keep visits interesting. RV hookup spaces are far enough apart to afford a good degree of privacy. A model park.
279	Various group sessions, talks and walks
280	we've enjoyed most all the state parks we've visited
281	Good
282	Too many to list.
